

CALL OF THE SEASHORE AND THE OLD HOME APPEALS TO EL PASO FOLK NOW

SOCIETY'S attention these closing days of spring is largely devoted to preparations for the annual summer migration to other parts of the world. The situation of the younger set is naturally interested in graduation exercises and consequently there will not be very much going on in a big formal way, but the week following being graduation week of the high school, the El Paso school for girls, and the grammar schools of the city, there will be a great deal going on.

For the coming week there will be the usual number of small informal club affairs. Mrs. E. B. Kiers will entertain the A. L. A. club Wednesday night. Mrs. J. E. Zelman will entertain the Wednesday bridge club the same afternoon. Mrs. Tom Lee will entertain the embroidery club Thursday. Mrs. Nora Bradley will entertain the Thursday bridge club the same afternoon. Mrs. J. R. Folger will entertain the Monday club on the first of the week.

The usual church societies will meet Tuesday afternoon. Parents' day at the schools will interest everyone who has the welfare of children at heart. Wednesday afternoon the Junior and Alamo schools will have exhibitions of the work of the year in the school buildings, to which the parents are invited to go. On Tuesday afternoon the Alta Vista school will have their annual exhibition of the work of the year in the school buildings, to which the parents are invited to go. On Tuesday afternoon the Alta Vista school will have their annual exhibition of the work of the year in the school buildings, to which the parents are invited to go.

Wallace McElahan and Joseph B. Smith left Friday to spend a few weeks in Chicago, Toledo, and Indianapolis. Mrs. W. S. Drysdale, wife of Lieut. Drysdale of the 20th Infantry, has gone to Fort Wingate, N. M., to join her husband.

Mrs. A. P. Averill will leave early in June for Chicago, where she will attend the biennial convention of the general federation of women's clubs. Major W. J. Fewel and wife left Friday afternoon for Sedalia, Mo., where they will spend several weeks. This is the major's annual pilgrimage to his former home in Missouri.

Miss Blanche White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott White, who has been attending the Loretto academy in Las Cruces, has made an exceptionally fine record in her school work, and also has made the two years course in music for both piano and violin in one year, and will graduate from the Loretto academy this spring. To attend her graduation, Miss Theo. Patterson and Miss Jennie A. Potter, have gone to Las Cruces.

Miss Anne Lee Gaines was the hostess for the S. C. club Friday afternoon at her home on Montana street. Walter E. Arnold was the winner of the prize for highest score. The club will probably not meet again during the summer.

The Merry Gals club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Stevens, on Union avenue. Needlework occupied the afternoon and while the guests were thus occupied, Mrs. W. R. Pitts gave several musical selections. Mrs. H. F. Griffith will entertain the club at its next meeting.

A picnic at West Teleta is being planned by the Daughters of Erin, for May 24. The picnicers will go in a chartered car, and everyone is anticipating a jolly time. In charge of the picnic is the following committee: Messieurs George Savage, P. K. Kelly, J. V. Hughes, J. J. Lopez, W. E. Truesdell and J. T. Grant.

The health club will give its final dance of the season next Thursday night at the Knights of Columbus hall.

The Ginet club had a successful dance Friday night at the Knights of Columbus hall. The dance was well attended.

Mrs. W. F. Miller entertained with a brightly appointed course luncheon Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. V. Penney, on Nevada street. Masses of scarlet poppies decorated the table and the room. Mrs. Miller was assisted in entertaining by her daughter. The guests were: Mrs. Herbert Nunn, Mrs. Thomas Quigley, Mrs. Victor E. Taglio and Mrs. W. J. Freeman.

Graduation exercises of St. Joseph's academy will occur on June 28 at the academy. The graduates are Miss Nora Young and Miss Valeria Loria. General exercises will be held the morning of June 27.

If there are any applications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Church Affairs

The Epiphania and Maraca classes of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a jolly picnic Friday afternoon and evening at Washington Park. The young women met at the church in the afternoon and the young men joined them at the park for the picnic supper, and the evening was spent in playing games on the lawn of the park. About 20 young people made up the picnic party.

A dollar social was held at the Westminster Presbyterian church Friday night at which over $25 was collected for the church debt fund. During the evening Miss Harriet Heermans sang, with Miss Mary Heermans playing her accompaniment, and W. A. Williams gave several readings from the works of James Whitcomb Riley. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. J. J. Driscoll entertained the Holy Family chapel altar society Friday afternoon at her home on East Nevada street. The afternoon was spent in playing a card game for a quill, and about 20 members were present. When the work was completed, a dainty two course luncheon was served by the hostess. Mrs. J. H. McLaughlin, Mrs. W. H. Waddell, Mrs. W. Hadley, Mrs. W. F. Robinson and Miss Blanche Garvin assisted. The altar society will not meet during the summer, this being the final meeting.

Mrs. W. L. Field of Las Cruces, N. M., is shopping in El Paso, and while here is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Sattley at Palm Court.

Miss Walker McCellan and her guest, Miss Annette Schmitt, of San Antonio, will arrive in El Paso Sunday. Miss McCellan has been the guest of Miss Schmitt in San Antonio since before the fiesta de San Jacinto. Miss Schmitt will be her guest here for several weeks.

Mrs. and Mrs. Clarence B. Smith, of Mexico City, have arrived in New Orleans from Mexico. Mrs. Smith is the sister of Mrs. John A. Wright, of 219 East Broadway in stock in El Paso. Mrs. Smith will come on to El Paso soon for a visit with Mrs. Wright. Mr. Smith is the cashier of the Mexican National railroad.

Mrs. Julia R. Deuel announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Netma Deuel to John T. Mossey. The wedding will occur about the middle of June.

Miss Florence McDonald Blunt, a former El Paso girl, will be married June 2, to Dr. Ernest H. Blunt, in Galveston, Texas. The wedding will occur in the First Methodist church. Miss Blunt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Blunt. She was born in El Paso. Her father was superintendent of the street railway of El Paso 2 years ago. She is a grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. McNeal. Mr. McNeal was chief dispatcher for the C. & G. S. A. here for many years. Dr. Blunt is a physician of Weatherford, Tex., where the couple will make their home.

Miss Geraldine Merchant, who has been attending the La Salle seminary near Boston, Mass., will return to El Paso for her summer vacation next Wednesday.

Miss Irene Laughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Laughlin, who has been attending the Mary Baldwin seminary in Staunton, Virginia, will return home for her summer vacation next Wednesday.
